School Newsletter May 2017

Dear Parents,

The summer term is well under way; indeed we are almost in May. The term has got off to a wonderful start with us inducting our tenth past pupil into our Hall of Fame on Wednesday of this week. Michael Perks attended Moorfield between 1997-2004. After leaving school he gained a scholarship to the prestigious Hammond Theatre School in Chester. He is now the owner of Michael Perks Hair, Beauty and Makeup Studio in Widnes. He gave the whole school an inspirational assembly and led us all in a rousing rendition of Reach for the Stars. Which he certainly has himself!

A huge thank you to all the children and parents who, last night, joined us to celebrate our annual Moorfield's Got Talent. It was a truly magnificent event which showcased the many creative talents of our children, from singing and dancing to magic and juggling. We were all wowed by every performance. The winner of this year's event was Adam Fitton from Year 6 who sang an absolutely amazing version of Ed Sheeran's, Lego House. He humbly received his first place prize to rapturous applause and a standing ovation. A HUGE well done from us all Adam. Runners up included: Year 5 Fay Pierce and Jessica Antrobus who danced to Bruno Mars 'Twenty Four Carrot Magic' and Boy Band, Oscar Mc Dowell, Ethan Godfrey, Ellis Dearden and Max Price from EYFS who sang the hymn, Praise him.

Kind regards,

Kathryn Heyes

End of KS2 SATs

The Year 6 children's forthcoming assessments (SATs) take place during the week of 8th -11th May. We always ask that parents take a considered view of their children's participation in statutory testing by helping to alleviate their own child's individual worries and personal anxieties. As adults each of us is able to recognise that we perform better under relaxed, secure conditions as opposed to intense, pressurised ones. Our advice to parents / carers whose children are undertaking tests / assessments is simple—help your child to remain calm and relaxed by keeping to normal routines as much as possible during this month.
